'UNCLE JOE' RE-ELECTED

THE AUTOCRAT OF THE HOUSE IS AGAIN CHOSEN AS ITS SPEAKER.

HIS FANGS ARE PULLED, HOWEVER

By Decisive Vote the Insurgents Defeated Resolution to Adopt the Rules of the Last Congress
—Champ Clark Honored.

Washington, March 15.—Precisely at noon today the extraordinary session of the sixty-first congress, called for the purpose of enacting tariff legislation, began. The usual great crowds were in attendance.

The senate being continuous today, its organization is complete, but the house consumed some time in swearing in new members, after which the work of electing the speaker was taken up. There seemed no doubt of Cannon being re-elected.

The Democratic Caucus.

At the house democratic caucus today Hon. Champ Clark, of Missouri, was nominated for speaker. Nine democrats were absent, delayed by floods in the south. There was no indication of a bolt, or even any wide difference of opinion. Mr. Henry, of Texas, presided. Mr. Clayton, of Alabama, was re-elected chairman, and nominated Clark for speaker.

Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, presented a resolution, pledging the members to support the democratic leader
"in his efforts to overthrow the pre-sistent arbitrary rules of the house and adopt rules that will enable a majority in congress to legislate."

Four absentees arrived later.

Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, was re-elected speaker of the house in the sixty-first congress. The vote was:
Cannon, 204; Clark, of Missouri, 166; Cooper, of Wisconsin, 8; Esch, of Wisconsin, 1; Norris, of Nebraska, 2; Hepburn, of Iowa, 1.

After the senate was called to order,
La Follette presented the credentials of Senator-elect Stephenson, of Wisconsin, who immediately took the oath of office.

Insurgents Won Fight on Rules.

The republican insurgents won their fight by a vote of 189 to 193 when the resolution offered by Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, asking that the rules of the last congress be those for the present session, was defeated.

When Dalzell introduced the resolution, the democrats forced a roll call on ordering the previous question.
The previous question was ordered by a vote of 194 to 188. The roll was then called on the adoption of the resolution and it was defeated.

Later, Clark of Missouri, offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to amend the rules. He moved the previous question on adoption of his resolution and a roll call was ordered. The house refused to order the previous question by a vote of 179 to 203, with the result that the question was again left in the air.

Things Are Coming His Way.

GREAT MEETING SUNDAY

IT WAS HELD BY THE NEWLY-OR-GANIZED Y. M. C. A. AT THE WOOD BUILDING.

ADDRESSED BY REV. FRANK Y. CAMPBELL

Told the Plain, Simple Story of How Man Must Repent and Lean on Jesus of Nazareth if He Would Be Saved.

The Y. M. C. A. gospel meeting held in the gymnasium of the Wood building Sunday afternoon was a great success, there being 159 men and boys seated, while many came and left on account of having to stand.

The Y. M. C. A. quartette rendered a musical number which did them credit.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra, composed of ten pieces, furnished the music,
with Meyers McClure at the piano.

Mr. Will Dixon led the singing, and through his efforts in directing the audience the music and songs were grand.

Rev. Frank Y. Campbell, of the First Baptist church, made a short talk, and through the plain, simple story of how man must repent and lean on Jesus of Nazareth to be saved, held his audience as if with magic power.

Rev. Campbell talks to men like a mother talks to her child, with earnestness and sincerity. You that failed to hear him missed something good.

At the close of the services a young boy requesting prayer went forward and prayed with Rev. Campbell, and gave his heart to the Lord.

Now does the Y. M. C. A. pay? Mothers and fathers, we will make this a place for your boys over 12 years of age to spend their evenings and be in good company. Don't deprive them of the yearly subscription of $5, for you may regret it in the years to come.

The Y. M. C. A. opened today at 12 o'clock and remains open till 10 at night, and this will constitute the hours until we secure a secretary and physical director.

The corresponding secretary mailed twenty-four letters to Y. M. C. A.'s and colleges, and we feel that in answer to those requests we will have a physical director on the ground in a week or two.

The Y. M. C. A. needs a library.
We have some books, also some promised. Now if you have only one that you could spare from your library, send or bring it to the reading room on the second floor, for it will be greatly appreciated.

You must come and make the Y. M.
C. A. a visit, for it is yours. Every man in Sedalia is welcome to spend his evenings and nights in the reading and game rooms, free. Should he desire the gymnasium, the baths, etc., then he must take out a membership card.

The cards can be secured at the rooms any night this week. Those that have signed up will please come and take their cards out as soon as possible, that we may get things in running order immediately.

Those that have not signed up come to the rooms any night and do so, that you may start with the class when the physical director arrives.

The First M. E. church Epworth League voted $10 for magazines last Wednesday night for the Y. M. C. A.

POISONS HIS 3 CHILDREN

FLORA, ILL., MAIL CLERK ALSO TAKES FATAL DRAUGHT HIMSELF.

FATHER AND TWO TOTS ARE NOW DEAD

Roberts Strawson, in Note That He Left for Wife, Says His Time
Had Come—Feared for Off-spring's Future.

Flora, Ill., March 15.—Robert Straw-son, aged 45, a mail clerk, at supper last evening poisoned his three children, aged 9, 5 and 3 years, respectively, by giving them strychnine in coffee. He afterward took the same draught himself.

The oldest child was still living at a late hour, but was having violent convulsions, while Strawson and the two others are dead.

Strawson left a note to his wife stating that he was tired of life, and that the time had come for him to go and he did not want to leave his children to fight the battles of life alone.
The coroner's inquest rendered a verdict of murder and suicide.

THE "WORLD" NOT GUILTY

This Is Plea Entered in Panama Canal
Libel Case.

New York, March 15.—The Press Publishing company, publishers of the New York World, through counsel today pleaded not guilty in the federal court to the charges of criminal libel
in connection with the Panama canal publications.

THE "OUTLAW" LEAGUE

MANAGER GALBRAITH, OF THE
KANSAS CITY CLUB, HAS BEEN DEPOSED.

NOT KNOWN WHO WILL GET FRANCHISE

"Jack" Sweeney, President of League,
Will Manage the St. Joseph
Club—Already Has Signed
Forty-Five Players.

Kansas City, Mo., March 15.—L. Galbraith, manager of the Kansas City team in the Outlaw baseball league, was deposed at a meeting of the league held at the Baltimore hotel yesterday afternoon.

The other managers present were unanimous in deciding to take the franchise away from the former holder. Just who will get this franchise is a question. There are three local business men who are said to be after it, but it has not been decided which one will receive it. The new holder will probably be announced by President Jack Sweeney today.

A prize fight was to have been pulled off in Turner hall Thursday night of this week for the benefit of the local team between Phil Knight and Brooklyn Tommy Sullivan.

The bout will probably be pulled off
as per schedule, but President Sweeney stated yesterday that it will not be connected with the new baseball league. "For this reason," said President Sweeney yesterday, "the franchise was taken from its former owner and will be placed in the hands of a responsible business man within the next two days. The league will have a team here as originally planned and will try to give good baseball."

President Sweeney will have the St.
Joseph team and has about forty-five men signed up for that club. He intends to give some of them to the other managers in the league in case they fall short of men when it is time for the schedule to open.

Among these men are well known players including "Frosty" Thomas, Dennis Sullivan and "Scissors" Ashley, according to Sweeney. Walter Osterkamp will play first and Harry Lucas will catch when Sweeney is not behind the bat.

Having Trouble in France.

Paris, March 15.—Difficulty with the telegraphers of the government postoffice department here resulted in rioting today when the new shifts came on duty. Windows were smashed, many instruments demolished, and amid a scene of great confusion the police rushed in and made many arrests.

Dean Bros. Got Contract.

Dean Bros. have been awarded the contract for erecting a brick addition to the building occupied by the Botz Printing company, on South Lamine avenue, and will begin preliminary work tomorrow or Wednesday. The new addition will cost about $2,500.

A Motion for a New Trial.

A motion for a new trial was filed by the defendant in circuit court today in the case of J. T. Loveland vs.
J. J. Frank, damages. A verdict for the defendant was returned by a jury several days ago.

SUES FOR A SEPARATION

PRESS DISPATCH SAYS PLAIN-TIFF IS A TEACHER IN SE-DALIA, MO.

THE DEFENDANT TEACHES AT PARIS, MO.

Neither Party Known Here—Husband Denies Allegations and Says He Never Refused Her Anything But Auto Cloak.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Sunday, the 14th, contained the following dispatch from Macon, Mo.:

"Depositions were taken here today
in a divorce case brought by Rebecca Burris against her husband, Thomas B. Burris, former principal of the Dumas school of this place.

"Mrs. Burris is now a teacher in Sedalia, and has her action filed there.
She charges her husband with immorality, cruel treatment and failure to provide properly for her and their two children.

"Burris is now a teacher at Paris, Mo. The defendant denies all his wife's charges. He says, while they lived here, she wanted an automobile cloak, a high-priced affair, and that he suggested a less expensive article would better suit his pocketbook;
otherwise he had given her everything she asked for.

"Burris don't want a separation.
He says he still loves his wife, and wants her and the children to come back."

Mrs. Burris is not a teacher in Sedalia. Neither she nor her husband are known here, so far as the Democrat-Sentinel has been able to learn.

THREE DEAD IN ODD TRAGEDY

Bride-Elect a Suicide and Brothers
Who Would Marry Her Die.

Granite City, Ill., March 15.—Miss Beryl Sommers, loved by two brothers, committed suicide March 3. John Nichols, elder and favored suitor, whom she was to marry ended his life
two days later.

Robert Nichols, who had nourished
his passion in secret that by his ab-negation the brother and sweetheart might be happy, died by his own hand Saturday at his home in Madison, near here.

A third brother, George Nichols, is frantic with grief and fears are entertained that the unseating of his reason may bring about a third tragedy in the household.

Several weeks ago parental objections came between Miss Sommers and her lover. Her father forbade her to see the young man and after writing him a fearful note she shot herself.

Two days later John shot himself,
leaving the following note to his brothers: "My sweetheart and intended wife was buried yesterday."

York City.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, March 17.—Directors of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain met today at the New York offices to select officers for the ensuing year.

All of the old officers were re-elected.

cific, was elected a member of the executive committee, as was also H. D.
Henson, these two gentlemen succeeding Messrs. Fish and Warfield, retired.

WERE WED ON SABBATH

MISS ELIZABETH HOUTS MAR-RIED TO MR. C. T. BUNCE, OF WEBB CITY.

FORMERLY "RUBE" OGLESBY'S OLD GIRL

Did Much Toward Securing His Nomination and Election As Railroad Commissioner, But Engagement Broken.

Joplin, Mo., March 15.—At 7 o'clock
Sunday morning Miss Elizabeth Houts, a Joplin school teacher, formerly of Warrensburg, and ex-fiancee of Rube Oglesby, ex-railroad commissioner, with whom she quarreled, was married to C. T. Bunce, cashier of the Miners' bank at Webb City. Bunce is the man about whom Miss Houts and Oglesby are said to have quarreled.

When Oglesby was a candidate for railroad commissioner Miss Houts stumped the state, making speeches, seeking his nomination and later his election.

He was successful and the couple were betrothed within a short time.
Then came the announcement that the engagement was broken, and within a short time a second announcement that Oglesby had married another.

Miss Houts refused to discuss the marriage of her ex-fiance and would assign no reason for the breaking of their engagement.

While Miss Houts was engaged to Oglesby she visited in Central Missouri, and upon her return to Webb City, before going to her home at Lakeside, near here, she was met at the train by a man who accompanied her home.

Oglesby, it is said, learned of this and the engagement was broken as a result. The man who met her at the station was C. T. Bunce. According to friends of Miss Houts, it was she who broke the engagement with Oglesby.

Only a few friends and relatives of the couple were present at the ceremony. Immediately after the marriage the two left for an extended honeymoon trip.

EDITOR ON CARPET NOW

May Have to Tell What He Knows
About Scandal.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 15.—The tangled municipal affairs of Los Angeles took another angle late Saturday night, when District Attorney Fredericks ordered the summoning of a special grand jury, which will be called to investigate E. T. Earl, who sprang into the limelight in a night as boss of the city.

Earl published in his paper, the Express, that he had information of wrongdoing on the part of Mayor Harper and some of his appointees, by which he forced the mayor to resign.

This evidence he has not divulged and he says that he agreed with Harper not to divulge it if Harper would resign.

On the strength of this published statement it is now charged that Earl is guilty of compounding a felony.

A HUNT FOR A HORSETHIEF

Officers Believe They Have Found
Trail of Luther Anderson.

Mexico, Mo., March 15.—The An-drain county officers are searching for a man who stole a horse near Lad-donia last afternoon who they believe is Luther Anderson, the alleged mur-derer of August Wagoner.

Someone went to the home of Mrs.
G. W. Covery near Laddonia about noon yesterday, and after stealing two revolvers, a brown suit of clothes, derby hat, an overcoat, two watches and other valuables, mounted a brown saddle mare and rode away.

The thief left a suit of clothes which was found in a stove partially burned. The clothes are similar to those worn by Anderson while in jail here which were furnished by the sheriff.

Sheriff Wooley has notified the officers in all of the towns in Callaway and Boone counties to keep on the lookout for the horse thief.

THE RESTLESSNESS FOR MUNICIPAL REFORM.

New York City wants to reform its government; that is, its men of affairs who have a large interest in its betterment want reform and have taken radical steps to bring it about. A number of wealthy and influential citizens have banded together for the purpose of ridding New York of its political evils and placing the administration of the city's vast affairs on a business basis.

To accomplish this result they have hit upon a novel and yet significant plan. They propose to raise by subscription half a million dollars. They will, if the scheme goes through, pay this money as a bonus to the right kind of a man who will consent to serve as mayor, he to receive in addition to his regular salary the amount of $125,000 a year from the private fund.

This means that New York City wants good government and is willing to contribute the extra money required, and believes that it will pay the city and people to have in the mayor's office a man of large business capacity, and one of the 'younger captains of industry,' they put it, who will give municipal affairs the benefit of the skill, energy and experience that he has developed in the management of private undertakings. They want a man who is absolutely incorruptible, fearless, and resourceful. They believe this is the salvation of New York's government, which beyond any question is and has most of the time in recent decades been the worst of any city in the world, except Philadelphia.

Whether the plan for reforming New York is practical or not is a question that can not be answered until it has been given a trial. It could be placed before the people in the right manner, however, there is hardly any question that it would carry. The great majority of New Yorkers are awake to the mismanagement and the graft and extravagance that burdens municipal administration and they would like to throw it off if they can. Under the political system as it now exists they are helpless; one party is as bad as the other, and both use the same methods for plundering and misgoverning the city when they get into power.

The movement in New York is significant in that it is indicative of a general restlessness throughout the country for better municipal government. There is scarcely a city or a town anywhere that is satisfied with the way its public affairs are administered.

Generally speaking, partisan control of a municipality has proven a flat failure; in fact, any system which has its foundation in politics is detrimental, subversive and costly to the taxpayer. The people have after generations of trying experience at last learned the irrefutable truth that the politicians are not in the business for their health; that they can not be trusted; that they are incompetent, and that their government of a city is about the greatest misfortune that could befall it.

Think of a man like Charlie Murphy ruling New York City, whose affairs compared with the Standard Oil Co. or the United States Steel corporation, the two greatest industrial enterprises in America, make the latter pale into insignificance! And compare the aldermen who bargain away its franchises, levy and expend its enormous revenue and decide large questions of policy with the directors of these corporations.

Think of a character like "Boss" Cox holding in his palm the destinies of the city of Cincinnati, besides which the biggest railroad in the country must take second place! Think of the "conduct of public business" it has received at his hands!

How long would the New York Central of the Pennsylvania railway companies continue to exist with the administration Philadelphia and Pittsburgh have staggered under for years?

In some degree most cities in the United States, large and small, are counterparts of these governmental monstrosities, varying only with the opportunities for corruption and the extent to which the people surrenders to the politicians.

Is it any wonder that municipal reform and business administration have become the goals which cities today, right and left, are attempting to reach?

WILL GET MORE THAN THEY ARE ENTITLED TO.

In Washington today will begin the grand encampment of the nation's special interests. For several days the vanguard of the procession has been in the national capital and has picked out choice locations from which to storm congress.

This host of lobbyists needs no credentials in Washington. Although it hails from the uttermost corners of the republic, it has been there many times before, and is familiar by reputation if not in fact. By tomorrow, when the Payne tariff bill is expected to be revealed, every special interest, from the cod fisherman of New England to the sheep grower of Montana will be ensconced in the trenches leading up to Capitol heights, with guns trained on senators and congressmen believed to be most vulnerable to their assorted ammunition. The steel trust, the beef trust, the sugar trust, the tobacco trust have their huge cannon and rapid fire guns already mounted and primed for terrific assault. The lumber, lead, copper, iron, wool, cotton, silk and textile musketry is forming in battalions, with polished rifles and flashing swords to follow up the artillery charge.

And the enemy! Where is the enemy; the nation's millions of consumers. Unorganized, unarmed, busy with its bread-winning pursuits, the opposing army, though outnumbering the attackers 1,000 to 1, is scattered to the four winds, tens, hundreds, thousands of miles from the scene of action. Helplessly it looks on as the preparations for the one-sided hostilities proceed, and resignedly it will accept the terms of surrender after the smoke has cleared away.

True, its generals are there, encamped on Capitol heights, with might and right on their side. But what are even generals likely to do, charged by formidable hosts and no court martial awaiting capitulation when they get back home? Time and again we have seen this battle fought which upon near inspection is found to be no battle at all. The results in variably have been the same: the protected interests get about what they want and the consumers get left.

The results will be little different after the approaching revision is made. The people may imagine they are getting concessions, but in the main they will be but crumbs alongside the loaves the special interests carry away.

There always has been difference of opinion as to the fiscal and tariff policy this country should pursue, and this division probably will continue indefinitely, but there never has been any question during the last fifteen or twenty years that the protected interests were getting more than they were entitled to and that the people were paying the bills for this expensive and richly concentrated prosperity.

The good work done and proposed to be done by Americans in fighting tuberculosis attracts admiration abroad. The tribute paid by British delegates to the congress held in Washington last fall is earnest and generous. American effort is never stinted when humanity is to be served.

English continues to make progress as the language of the world. An order from the minister of education requires the teaching of that language hereafter in all the public schools of Guatemala. And it may be added that such training will help in bringing the different Americas together.

The special interests profess to be alarmed over the prospects of tariff revision. When this occurs it is time for the people to become both suspicious and apprehensive.

The sensational Carmack murder trial down in Tennessee is nearing the end, and a weary public will rejoice to see it included among the Thaw and Hains has-beens.

THE 'TINKERS' ON TARIFF

"EXPERTS" APPEARED BEFORE
THE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

THOUSANDS OF "BRIEFS" ARE FILED

All Kinds of People With All Kinds of Grievances and Suggestions Were Heard During the Many "Sittings."

Washington, D. C., March 15.—Fully three hundred importers and exporters, manufacturers and agriculturists, and tariff experts appeared before the house committee on ways and means at the various hearings which began on November 10 and continued daily until December 23, and also at several supplemental hearings. Some of the most prominent men in the manufacturing and financial worlds presented testimony of a varied and interesting character. In addition to this testimony there were thousands of briefs filed with the committee, which, added to the statistics furnished by the various government departments and agents sent abroad, together with special data compiled by Thomas J. Doherty, assistant counsel of the treasury department, and Major Herbert M. Lord, who was clerk of the ways and means committee when the Dingley tariff was framed, has given the committee information more complete than has ever been at the disposal of a tariff framing committee.

Andrew Carnegie, Charles H. Schwab, Judge E. H. Gary and other steel magnates furnished the most interesting testimony. Mr. Carnegie, who caused considerable discussion by proclaiming in a magazine article, that the steel manufacturers of this country do not need any tariff protection, was before the committee for nearly eight hours. His testimony, while witty and entertaining, did not offer the tariff makers much specific information regarding the cost of manufacturing steel rails and other articles of steel. He dealt largely in theories and deductions and avoided figures, claiming that he was not familiar with the details of the steel business at the present time, but spoke from his general knowledge gained in the business before he retired to private life.

Head of the Steel Trust Heard.

Judge Gary, who was one of the best equipped and most satisfactory witnesses who appeared before the committee preceded Mr. Carnegie by several days. He declared that the independent steel manufacturers require tariff protection and said that if the duty on steel should be removed, the United States Steel corporation, of whose board of directors he is chairman, would secure a monopoly of the market. The cost of labor would be reduced, he said if the tariff on steel was taken off entirely. In the course of his testimony Judge Gary declared in favor of government control of manufacturers to prevent them from charging a price which would give them more than a fair return on their investments.

Mr. Schwab, who was formerly president of the Steel corporation, was one of the most earnest advocates for protection for the steel industry to appear before the committee. His replies to the questions of members of the committee were replete with figures and arguments. He declared that the Bessemer process of steel manufacture will, within five years, be superseded by the open hearth process, which, he predicted, will in turn be abandoned for the electric system of manufacture being developed in Germany.

The agitation for free lumber by those in sympathy with the movement for the conservation of the forests of the country resulted in a strong appeal from the lumber interests of the south and northwest. Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri, the minority leader of the house, submitted the lumber magnates to severe cross examinations and these hearings were among the most interesting. T. B. Walker and Edward Hines, two of the largest lumber dealers in the northwest, argued for the retention of the present duty on lumber, claiming that the United States cannot compete with Canada in facilities for cheap transportation or cheap labor. A number of Southern lumbermen also asked for protection, contending that the cost of production has increased.

Paper Trust Arraigned.

A severe arraignment of the so-called paper trust by John Norris, representing the American Newspaper Publishers' association, and a defense of the International Paper company by Chester W. Lyman, assistant to the president of the company, offered one of the sensations of the hearings. The ways and means committee, while taking the keenest interest in the testimony, was predisposed to depend upon the report of the special committee which conducted hearings on wood pulp and print paper last year for the information upon which to base its conclusions regarding the paper and pulp schedule.

The proposition to have the values of articles upon which an ad valorem duty is imposed determined by the wholesale prices in this country as well as the cost at the place of production was first discussed at the hearing given the pottery interests. This method of collecting the duties would permit the appraisers to call upon witnesses in this country for information, which, under the present method of collecting ad valorem duties is not possible. The plan was advanced as a means for preventing under valuations, of which there has been complaint wherever ad valorem duties have been imposed. Several cases of under valuation were presented to the committee by the pottery manufacturers, who favored an increase in the duties on the better grades of china. The importers advanced arguments for a reduction of 25 per cent in the duties on pottery.

As at all former tariff hearings there was a fight between the shoe and leather manufacturers of New England and the cattle raisers of the west. The leather manufacturers were loth to admit that their industry could stand a reduction in the duties on shoes and other leather articles, but urged that the raw material should be placed on the free list. An amusing incident occurred when one of the shoe men admitted that with free hides the shoe manufacturers would be able to compete with foreign manufacturers without tariff protection. This caused the leather manufacturers to assemble their forces and present arguments to show that the duty on the manufactured article should not be reduced.

Packer Gets the Benefit.

Elisha W. Cobb, a manufacturer of heavy leather, of Boston, Mass., told the committee that the tariff on hides accrued only to the benefit of the packers and not to the farmer and cattle raiser. He declared that the large packers of Chicago are engaged in the tanning business and look forward to the time when they will have complete monopoly in the hide business and in the sole and upper-leather business.

The wool schedule was the occasion for more contention than any other and during its consideration there was much criticism of the methods by which tariff bills are framed. While William Whitman, of Boston, representing the National Wool Manufacturers, was on the stand, Representative Clark, of Missouri, placed in the record a pamphlet which purported to inform the ways and means committee "how tariff laws are framed." The name of the author of the pamphlet was given as Frank P. Bennett, of Boston.

"The place where you get in your work is not in the house of representatives or in the ways and means committee, but in the senate, isn't it?" was one of the characteristic questions asked by Champ Clark of Mr. Whitman.

Wool Industry Helpless!

The wool growers of Ohio and the western states declared emphatically to the committee that further protection must be given the industry or the wool growing business would be entirely wiped out. The woolen manufacturers also asked that the present duties at least be retained on their product. There were several supplementary hearings on the wool schedule, all of which indicated that the various branches of the industry differ as to the proper classification and differentials to be established in the tariff. The carpet manufacturers declared that the classification in the present tariff is unjust to their industry, and similar claims were made by other manufacturers. There was much testimony which shed considerable light on the methods employed in the manufacture of woolen fabrics, indicating that much so-called pure wool clothing contains considerable shoddy and rags. This called forth the suggestion from Representative Clark that there should be a pure clothing law, similar in its objects to the pure food law.

Sugar From the Philippines.

The admission from the Philippines, free of duty, of 300,000 tons of sugar was the first proposition on which the ways and means committee agreed. This action was taken by the committee following a conference with Mr. Taft. The statement by Edwin F. Atkins, of Boston, that there was great danger of an insurrection in Cuba if the tariff on sugar is not reduced and the arguments made by Claus R. Spreckles, of New York, in favor of a reduction in the duty were the striking features of the hearings on the sugar schedule. Secretary of War Wright appeared before the committee in favor of free sugar from the Philippines. He declared that the so-called sugar trust was understood to own 51 per cent of the stock of the beet sugar refineries and that that is possibly the reason why the beet sugar industry has not grown in this country. The Louisiana cane sugar growers claimed that the price to the consumer of sugar and the price paid to the farmer for his product is fixed by the sugar trust.

California Fruit Growers.

The California fruit growers were arrayed against the importers, and one argument advanced by the latter for reduced duties on lemons was that the recent earthquake in Sicily had resulted in a scarcity of labor and the destruction of lemon groves. Senator Hale appeared before the committee to ask that tapioca flour be specially provided for in the bill. Similar requests were made on numerous articles. The committee found considerable information at its disposal in a volume giving statistics regarding imports and duties prepared by William W. Evans, assistant clerk of the committee. William K. Payne is the clerk of the committee.

THE STAGE IS ATTACKED

BY REV. J. B. TOOMAY, FORMERLY PASTOR OF A CHURCH IN SEDALIA

DECLARES NINE-TENTHS OF PLAYS BAD

That is, They Are Harmful Instead of Beneficial—Supports Archbishop Glennon in Recent Utterances.

The Rev. J. B. Toomay, a former pastor of the Second Congregational church of Sedalia, was written of as follows in the Globe-Democrat of Monday morning, March 15:

From his pulpit at Fountain Park Congregational church yesterday morning, Rev. J. B. Toomay delivered a drastic attack on the theater and the modern drama in a sermon on "The Signs of the Time," echoing and coinciding with the criticisms Archbishop Glennon launched against the theater in his Ash Wednesday discourse at the Old Cathedral, printed in the Globe-Democrat at the time.

Rev. Toomay declared a belief that the theater was much in need of reformation, asserting that nine-tenths of the plays presented today are harmful to the morals of the people witnessing them, and quoting the archbishop's statement that habitual play-goers are authority for the statement that they seldom see a decent performance.

Rev. Toomay's criticisms were submitted last night to well known actors, George Arliss and Henry Miller, and the managers of the two leading St. Louis theaters. The pith of the reply of Mr. Arliss was that Mr. Toomay's views were not broad, he betraying unfamiliarity with plays and players.

He admitted that there were just grounds for classing many theatrical productions as immoral, but held that this was no criterion by which to judge the many that were wholesome. Manager Short of the Olympic theater held that there was some good in all real plays, while Manager Fishell, of the Garrick, took the view that it was a case of a minister having denounced the theater without having studied his subject.

"The theater would be far better if nine-tenths of the play-acting troupes were to go out of business and three-fourths of the theaters were turned into warehouses," Rev. Toomay said in his sermon, following this statement with one that he wished to make "no sweeping accusations." He believed "the dramatic is a part of our nature just as truly as the religious is a part of our nature, but the theater, as it is managed, in a great majority of instances is wrong." He approved Archbishop Glennon's Ash Wednesday utterance that "his own people going to the theater without having studied his subject."

"Let us save the theater," Mr. Toomay said, "and have a performance that will appeal to the best sense and highest virtue of the individual. No man has any right to encourage a performance on the stage in which he would be unwilling to have his own sister or his own daughter engage. Let us try this simple rule and we will have a theater elevated to a plane that all of us can very quickly attend."

Two other points in public life, Mr. Toomay saw as "signs of the time." The first of these was that the day of higher political standard has dawned. He said that when Grover Cleveland uttered the words, "a public office is a public trust," they came like a new doctrine, because the spoils system at that time was universal, but that now this dictum of Mr. Cleveland is accepted generally.

"A certain type of politician that grew up after the war has passed away. He will never return. Any man today will have a hard time who undertakes to go into public life for the purpose of serving both God and mammon. The long list of degraded officeholders, of senators and congressmen whose public life is finished, not by their own choice, bears pathetic but inspiring testimony to what I have said. The man who enters public service today must enter it with the expectation of denying himself. He must be earnest, he must be capable, he must be devoted. He must love his country ten times better than any man ever did in the olden time."

SMOKE GOLDEN ROD CIGAR, 10c

Tinsy Cake.

The sponge cakes should be soaked in milk, with only a slight flavoring of sherry; the custard made of a pint and a half of milk, four eggs and a teaspoonful of corn flour moistened with cold milk. A pretty garnish for this would be crystallized fruit cut into small dice, or, if preferred, the sponge cakes stuck with almonds cut into very thin strips.

Oysters in Grape Fruit.

Cut grape fruit so as to form a handle basket. Scrape out the pulp and clip edge into points with scissors. Place eight small oysters in each basket and cover them with a sauce made of equal portions of lemon juice, grated horseradish, tomato catsup and speck mustard. Place on shaved ice on plate and serve.

Virginia Biscuit.

Mix two pints flour, one tablespoonful lard, one teaspoonful salt, and enough milk and water mixed to form a stiff dough.

Turn out on a biscuit block and beat 30 minutes with an ax kept for the purpose; or run backward and forward through a kneading trough until rather soft and perfectly smooth.

Rodwell Cake.

One cup sugar, half cup butter, half cup milk, one cup sifted flour, one tea spoon cream of tartar, half teaspoon soda, two eggs.

Better Than Hard Work.

He was a frank New York beggar, soliciting in Fourteenth street during the early days of the week, who, when asked why he didn't go to work, answered: "Why should I try to get work when I couldn't earn more than a couple of dollars a day, and I can make three or four dollars a day much easier?"

Cheap Doughnut Recipe.

The following is a carefully tested recipe for doughnuts, or what would be more correctly called crullers: Mix a scant cupful of sugar with an egg and a piece of butter the size of a butternut. After carefully creaming add a cupful of milk and two cupfuls of flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Stir together and turn out on a mixing board. If needed, add more flour—enough to roll out. Fry in smoking hot lard. After frying drain from grease and roll them in sugar.

Baked Apple Pudding

Is very simple and inexpensive and may be made with one cupful of flour, one egg, one-half cupful of milk one-half cupful of sugar, one teaspoonful of baking powder, two tablespoonfuls of butter and six sour apples. Sift the flour and baking powder together, beat the egg and milk together and cream the butter and sugar. Add the egg and milk alternately with the flour to the creamed butter and sugar and flavor with one-fourth of a teaspoonful of vanilla. Peel the apples and slice them into a butter dish and over them pour the batter. Bake about 20 minutes.

COULDN'T OBEY HIS WIFE

After Trying It Two Weeks St. Louis Man Broke Up the Furniture.

St. Louis, Mo., March 15.—Emil Jansen is off the wagon again. The man who was ordered to be a good boy and obey his wife implicitly for two weeks or go to the workhouse found it too much for human endurance to be a cherub for fourteen consecutive days.

After twelve days of model conduct, in which he carried in the wood without a murmur, got up in the morning and made the fires and said, "Thank you, my dearie," when his wife permitted him one little glass of beer, Emil returned to his own Saturday. He went home, smashed up the furniture, threw the coal bucket out of the window and gave his wife a beating.

And Emil is now in jail, while his wife is preparing to divorce him. When Emil was arraigned before Judge Kleiber the first time his wife, after telling how he mistreated her when he was drinking, pleaded that he be given an opportunity to reform. The judge granted a parole upon condition that Jansen obey his wife implicitly and refrain from intoxicants for two weeks.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

WITH SEVERED JUGULAR VEIN, ENGINEER RUNS TRAIN TWENTY MILES.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources For the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

A Wilwaukee, Wis., Evening Wisconsin special from Marshfield, Wis., says:

James Delmore, an engineer whose run is on the Omaha railroad between here and Merrillan, yesterday made himself a hero nearly at the expense of his life.

He was forcing his engine at a forty-mile-an-hour pace through the huge snowdrifts which had almost blocked the traffic here for the past three days, when the window glass of his cab was broken by the wind and ice, hurling a piece of the broken glass violently against his throat, cutting a deep gash and nearly severing the jugular vein.

With one hand on the throttle and the other holding shut the wound to stem the profuse flow of blood, he brought his train safely to Granton, a distance of twenty miles.

There, nearly dead from the loss of blood, he was taken to a hospital, where it is believed he will recover.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 96.

When you see a news item about a town being bankrupt, because of no saloon license, don't fail to remember that in most towns the saloons own the mayor and the aldermen, and many times they are most reckless with the city's finance, to "show temperance up." An illustration of this recently took place in Higginsville, our own state. The saloons were voted out there a year ago last February, and this year they voted for $25,000 to build a high school, and as they have a new bank started since saloons were voted out and the bank deposits have increased $60,000, and they put down a great deal of water mains, and have been prospering greatly, the WETS saw that it would be a little humiliating to have ALL this to occur, and they worked like demons to stop the high school, and the good people worked hard, too and won by 16 votes, so they will have a nice school building. The saloons make it a point to have wet city officials, and you just watch them put in wet officials this spring any where they are. Many good people are getting tired of having saloon aldermen, and other officials.

WOOD'S OPERA HOUSE.

Miss Jackson scored another success last evening in Bronson Howard's beautiful play, "The Young Mrs. Winthrop." Every member of the company was well cast and played well. Miss Jackson was more than pleasing, and her support by Mr. Clyde Weston was all that could be asked. Mr. Weston proved himself an actor of much ability and fine feeling.

It fell to Miss Hurst and Mr. Levin to sustain the comedy element of the play, and this they did in a most pleasing manner. Miss Hurst looked beautiful in a gown of black trimmed in gold and sparkles over green. Mr. Levin was natural, easy and pleasing as the lawyer. Mr. Bankson, whom we have begun to look for in the part of the villain, played the doctor last night, and Mr. Hayes made a most acceptable father. Bessie Bell and Sydney Morris, as Edith and Herbert, were fine. The love affair of these two children was so sweet and pure and wholesome that it was a pleasure to see its happy termination. "The Young Mrs. Winthrop" is a great play. No one should fail to see it.

BOYCOTT OF THE "KATY"

VICE PRESIDENT AND TRAFFIC MANAGER HAILE GOES TO KANSAS CITY.

POURED OIL ON THE TROUBLED WATERS

Conference Between Officials and the Transportation Bureau Ends, With No Progress Toward Settlement.

Kansas City, Mo., March 15.—A new turn in the boycott of the shippers against the Missouri, Kansas and Texas came Saturday, when one of the other north and south roads announced it would make a rate of $1.02 from Galveston to Kansas City. In combination with the water rate of 25 cents per hundredweight from New York to Galveston, such a reduction would mean a rate of $1.27 from New York to Kansas City via the port of Galveston. Thus the Kansas City shippers would have 10 cents less per hundredweight to absorb than at present.

"It was a case of 'Here's your hat, what's your hurry?'" said a railroad man Saturday in regard to the rather cavalier dismissal of the Katy officials who conferred in the morning with about twenty-five members of the transportation bureau concerning the shippers' boycott.

Columbus Haile, vice president and traffic manager of the boycotted road, asked the shippers to rescind their action, which he regarded as hasty, in order that his line might arrange a readjustment with its connections from the east. The shippers, however, saw fit to "stand out," and Mr. Haile told them his road would under no circumstances yield to the coercion of a boycott.

About this time Leon Smith, president of the Commercial club, observed that Mr. Haile was making no promises and that the gathering had as well disperse. Thereupon the railroad vice president felt that it was time to take his leave.

Mr. Haile returned to St. Louis over the Chicago and Alton Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Before leaving he said:

"In spite of this boycott against us, the M. K. & T. intends to treat Kansas City as fairly as it knows how. I regard the action of the shippers as precipitate, and if they had waited for us to arrange a readjustment with other lines the matter might be amicably settled. As it is, they have tied our hands by instituting a boycott to which it would be foolhardy for us to yield."

"It is obvious that every time a rate adjustment is made protests come from every part of the country which feels itself discriminated against. Should we accede to the demands of the Kansas City dry goods shippers it would be the signal for every little community to organize a boycott of its own, in trying to coerce us into action which might benefit it. It should be apparent that we can not afford to create such a precedent as being coerced by shippers who agree to take their business away from us. Not only that, but we have other interests to be considered. Should we grant a greatly reduced rate to Kansas City, as demanded, we would antagonize our eastern connections which give us a vast amount of business for southwestern delivery."

"The history of the present trouble goes back to a year ago in St. Louis. At that time, which was not long after the 2-cent fare went into effect in Missouri the railroads of the state agreed to grant no special fares under the rate established by the state. A little later the St. Louis business men came to the M. K. & T. and wanted us to put in the customary low merchants' rates, which we refused to do in order to comply with our agreement with the other roads. Finally, one of the lines out of St. Louis was induced to put in the merchants' rates, in violation of the agreement, and the St. Louis shippers proceeded to boycott us in favor of the other road. Of course, we protested and our protest seemingly had effect, for the shippers finally conceded that we had not been accorded what was our share of the business. This was the state of affairs up to last January, when merchants were laying in their spring stocks of goods and shipments were correspondingly heavy. We found, however, that the St. Louis shippers had secretly reinstituted their boycott on us, and we saw that we would have to go elsewhere for business."

lahoma City, and the shippers there asked for a low rate on merchandise from the Texas city. We saw a chance to get new business, and on account of the rate laid down by the Texas railroad commission of 49 cents from Galveston to Red river, it was possible for us to make a rate of 85 cents from the gulf to Oklahoma City. We rather expected a protest from Kansas City and St. Louis and intended to lend our influence toward getting a rate similarly based for these cities, but we anticipated no such thing as a boycott here. All we ask is fair treatment at the hands of Kansas City, and it is certainly to our interest to give nothing but fair treatment in return."

Assistant General Freight Agent W. W. Miller, of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, at St. Louis, accompanied Mr. Haile to Kansas City. Mr. Miller said:

"The welfare of Kansas City is identical with the welfare of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and we have always striven to give this city a rate adjustment that would put it on an equal footing with other competitive markets. Notwithstanding the apparent antagonism of the local shippers, we shall maintain this same attitude."

The new rate announced by the Katy is now in preparation, and will be in effect April 23 or 24. It will be filed with the interstate commerce commission some day this week, and must remain on file for thirty days before it can be made effective.

"Why," exclaimed one railroader, earnestly, "the Katy and Kansas City Southern are the railroads that put Kansas City on the map as a grain center. I find, too, that few of the grain men here are in sympathy with the boycott of the dry goods shippers."

Missouri, Kansas and Texas connects at St. Louis with the Baltimore and Ohio, the Big Four, Vandalia, Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis, Louisville and Nashville and Southern roads, which will have to be consulted before a reduced rate from the gulf to Kansas City or St. Louis can be put in by the Katy.

Before the shippers adjourned Saturday the adopted a resolution to the effect that the rate to be made effective by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas is a fair one and should be extended to Kansas City.

Here's the Katy's Hand.

McAlester, Ok., March 15.—At a special meeting of the McAlester chamber of commerce, held last night, a resolution was adopted reciting that whereas Kansas City had determined to put the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway "off the map" by reason of its having granted a first class rate of $1.10 from New York to Oklahoma points, the merchants, manufacturers and shippers of McAlester would put Kansas City off the map so far as business transactions controlled by McAlester are concerned.

All of the larger business interests of the city were represented at the meeting and a spirit of retaliation was dominant. They also request all other commercial organizations of the state to take like action at once.

WILL SUE FOR DAMAGES

DEFENDANTS WILL BE MEN WHO ANTAGONIZED MISS HOFFMAN'S "SALOME."

RECENT INJUNCTION IN KANSAS CITY

Asserts That Court Proceeding Scandalized, Injured Her Reputation and May Reflect on 7-Year-Old Son.

Kansas City, Mo., March 15.—Gertrude Hoffman, the Salome dancer, will bring suit for damages against the men who stopped her performance at the Saubert theatre two weeks ago. A. M. Frumberg, Mrs. Hoffman's St. Louis attorney, arrived here Saturday to retain counsel in her behalf and will make an effort to have the suit filed at once.

Henry M. Beardsley, George E. Bowling, Nathaniel Dickey and D. A. Trimble probably will be cited as defendants in the proceeding. The amount of the damages to be asked for has not yet been announced, but that it will be large is asserted by her attorney.

"I am here to retain Kansas City counsel in behalf of Mrs. Gertrude Hoffman for the purpose of filing suit against the men who filed a bill in equity for an injunction to restrain her from performing her Salome dance in the play known as the 'Mimic World,'" said Mr. Frumberg. "Mrs. Hoffman is a married woman, whose husband is the musical director of the production in which she appears. She has a boy 7 years old and she feels that not only has her reputation suffered an odium and herself greatly scandalized, but that the proceedings will remain a court record and may eventually be used against her son should he ever aspire for anything in this world."

"The allegations we complain of are scandalous and outrageous in that they consist of such charges as these: That in her performance were suggestive contortions of the body and that she placed the mock head of John the Baptist in a ridiculous position."

"She is also charged with wearing garments not concealing her lower extremities, insinuating indecent exposure, and of performing her dances for the purpose of creating immoral and improper impressions."

"Miss Hoffman can and will explain every contortion and every movement made by her in these dances, the same having been taken from the book of Salome and as depicted in a standard work on the subject. She denies most emphatically the charges as they appear in the records and in further justification of her position asserts that three of the persons who testified against her have never seen the dances, but based their allegations upon purely hearsay evidence."

"We will fight this thing to the bitter end and Mrs. Hoffman will not have to stand the cost involved as she has the entire theatrical profession behind her in this action. We have secured depositions from men of the gospel and ministers whose ability to discriminate between good and bad is equally as well developed as those in this city who declaim loudest against her. And her advantage in these depositions is that the men who made them have witnessed the performance of these dances."

"Following the lead of the Kansas City Ministerial alliance, the St. Louis ministers sought to bring a similar condition in that city and brought injunction proceedings against Mrs. Hoffman to restrain her from giving the Salome dance. We beat them so badly that it would be heartless to describe it, and the commendation we received at the hands of the St. Louis press and the authorities of that city bear out our position in the Kansas City matter."

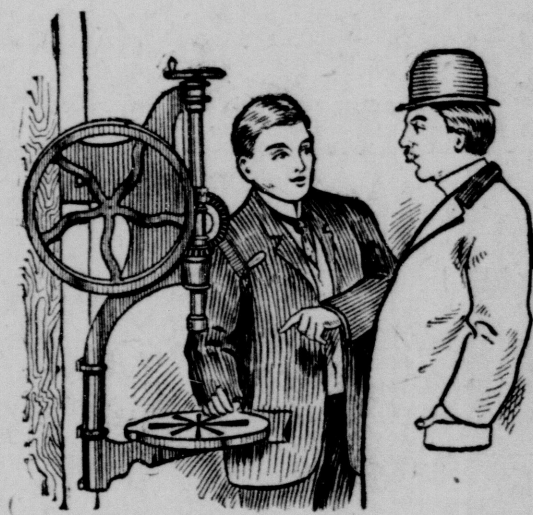

"Just who the counsel will be, I am not at liberty yet to announce, but suffice to say we will have the best that can be had. If we cannot get satisfaction in the courts here, there are other courts where, perhaps, we can, and no effort will be spared to bring it about. We expect some difficulties, of course. That is but natural, but we also expect to win the case. I am also not permitted to announce the amount of damages Mrs. Hoffman will seek, but they will be enough."

USEFUL DISCOVERIES

Are Not Always Startling, Neither Do They Create the Most Talk.

It is not always the greatest, most startling discoveries of science that are most useful to the human race.

Comparatively few people were directly interested in Herschel's finding of the new planet Uranus, but many thousands have been benefited by Prof. Unna's experiments, which proved beyond a question that Dan-druff and Baldness are the results of the inroads of a parasite germ which invades the roots of the hair.

The discovery of the true cause of baldness made Newbro's Herpicide possible. Herpicide effectually kills this germ. Destroy the cause you remove the effect.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

TOO BIG TO GO TO PRISON

NONE OF MISSOURI CELLS WILL HOLD LOUIS DECKER, OF ST. LOUIS.

NO CLOTHES IN WHICH TO DRESS HIM IN

A Room in the Hospital Has Been Fixed Up for the Mountainous St. Louis Boodler and He Is Being Housed There.

Jefferson City, March 15.—Matt W. Hall, warden of the penitentiary, admits that he has a hard problem to discover some means of handling Louis Decker, of St. Louis, ex-member of the house of delegates there, who was convicted of boodling and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

Decker came here last Thursday and surrendered to the marshal of the supreme court, who that evening delivered him to the warden of the penitentiary. Then trouble started for the warden. It was discovered that there was not a suit of clothes in the prison large enough to fit the prisoner. He was not dressed in that evening. In fact, he has not been regularly dressed in yet.

Decker, who is 5 feet 10 inches in height, tipped the scales at 320 pounds, and he is by far the heaviest prisoner ever received at the penitentiary.

About the same time that Warden Hall discovered that it would be necessary to have a special suit of striped clothes made to fit him, if Decker was to wear the prison uniform. Porter Gilvin, deputy warden, said he did not believe there was a bed in the prison large enough to accommodate Decker, and that in his opinion the latter would not be able to get through a good many cells that have narrow doors.

Upon measurement this prediction proved quite true, and thus more trouble was loaded upon the warden. Finally, the prison physician, Dr. Chastain, was called into counsel. He said he believed a place could be fixed up in the hospital building where Decker could sleep comfortably. The warden at once accepted the proposition and thither Decker was taken. With the aid of some convicts a bed was constructed and Decker has occupied the same ever since.

He had to wear his own clothes until Saturday, when a pair of trousers were turned out from the prison tailor shop sufficiently large to accommodate him, but the coat was found to be entirely too small, and he is yet wearing the one he brought here with him. An order, however, has been placed for a coat that will fit him and this week it is expected that he will be fitted out in full prison uniform.

"I don't know what in the world we will find for Decker to do," said Warden Hall. "The penitentiary was not constructed with a view to accommodating men of his avoirdupois. It would kill him to give him a task in one of the shops, and, of course, this will not be done. We will look about presently, however, and try to find some light work that he can perform. He will be allowed to retain his quarters in the hospital building, which are really the best in the prison. Decker is apparently in good health and appears to enjoy the fact that he is too large to be accommodated in any of the prison cells, and, in fact, too large to get inside most of them."

FEEBLE OLD LADY Has Strength Restored By Vinol

Mrs. Michael Bloom of Lewistown, Pa., who is 80 years of age, says: "For a long time I have been so feeble that I have had to be wheeled around in an invalid's chair. I had no strength and took cold at the slightest provocation, which invariably settled on my lungs, and a cough would result. My son learned of the cod liver preparation called Vinol, and procured a bottle for me. It built up my strength rapidly, and after taking three bottles I am able to do most of my work, and I can walk a quarter of a mile easily. Every aged or weak person who requires strength should try Vinol. I am delighted with what it has done for me."

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, and after sickness, Vinol is unexcelled. If it fails to give satisfaction we will return your money.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. WILL REPRESENT AMERICA IN GORDON BENNETT AVIATION CONTEST.

TWO WRIGHT BROTHERS WILL COMPETE

Event Will Be Held in the Environs of Paris in August—The Aviator Making Best Record to Receive $25,000.

New York, March 15.—The International Aeronautic Association announced that entries closed today for the international balloon contest to be held in Switzerland next September. The American Aeronautic society made one entry, but the American pilot has not yet been selected.

For the first competition this year of the Gordon Bennett Aviation prize America expects to be represented by the full team of three. It is believed that both Wilbur and Orville Wright will compete. The actual conditions for this event were made public at the recent conference in London of the aeronautical representatives in Europe.

The event will be held in the environs of Paris in August. Each contestant will be required to make a flight around a measured circuit of from five to ten kilometers, about three to six miles, and the total distance traversed must be twenty kilometers.

The aviator completing the test in the shortest time will receive the prize, which means $25,000 to him individually, while the club from which he is entered will hold for the year the $5,000 cup.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 15.—Fred Morris, a baseball player, last night shot and killed Otto H. Meyer, a vaudeville singer, in a room at a hotel, after having obtained a written confession that his relations with Mrs. Morris were improper.

Morris declared he forced Meyer to write and sign the confession and told him that he intended to kill him.

"Meyer folded his arms," said Morris, "and told me to shoot him through the heart only once. I did as he suggested and would follow him to the grave except for the fact I have a little boy who I think needs me to look out for him."

St. Louis, Mo., March 15.—The laziest man in the world—lazier even than Mark Twain professes to be—is at Jerseyville, Ill., forty miles north-east of St. Louis. His name is John Mumera and he has been in bed ten years because he is unwilling to comply with the rules of the Jersey county farm, which say that everyone living there shall rise at 5 a. m.

Mumera is not sick. Though he is 59 years old, his hair and mustache are raven black, and his appetite is good. In the long period during which he has lain in bed he has never shown signs of impatience or restlessness, except when his meals have not been served promptly.

Before he went to the county farm, in the spring of 1899, Mumera lived in a little hut in the outskirts of Jerseyville, but he was in no sense a recluse or hermit. He made frequent visits to town, mingling with the citizens there, and among a certain coterie he was known as a "good fellow."

He was a voluntary applicant for permission to live at the farm. The records show that he was entered as a bachelor, with no living relatives.

Before he had been at the farm a week he complained that the rising hour was too early. One morning he failed to take his place at the breakfast table.

Richard Mourning, superintendent of the farm, went to his room.

"Time to get up," he said. "I'm not going to get up at 5 o'clock in the morning for anybody," replied John.

"You'll have to," said Mourning.

That made John real angry. Shaking his finger at the superintendent, he exclaimed:

"I'll never get up any more. I might as well stay in bed. It's too much trouble undressing every night and dressing every morning, anyway."

"I'm ready to hold up my hand and swear that he has kept his word," said Mourning to a reporter. "John has been in bed ten years, and he says he will stay there the remainder of his life."

He is thin, but he eats and sleeps well and he has never been sick a day. He won't read or even play solitaire or checkers or do anything to occupy his mind. He just lies there and looks at the ceiling, or rolls over once in a while and takes a nap. When he talks it is all about how foolish a man is to get up in the morning when he knows he will have to go back to bed at night. It has got to be a sort of hobby with him.

"I don't consider John troublesome. We take his meals to him, change his clothes and look after his wants, and he doesn't bother us at all."

MISSOURI BANK ROBBER

ONE OF THE FOUR MEN WHO DID
CAMDEN POINT JOB IS BEHIND THE BARS.

WAS TAKEN IN CUSTODY IN KANSAS CITY

William Turner, Arrested at Station, Makes Confession That Made
the Police Sit Up—He's Tired of Dodging.

Kansas City, Mo., March 15.—William Turner, one of the four men who robbed the Bank of Camden Point on December 27, 1907, and who has been in several bank robberies all over the country, has made a complete confession. Turner was arrested Saturday afternoon at the Union depot upon orders from the sheriff of Sapulpa, Ok., who wanted him for petty larceny. He confessed to the Camden Point bank robbery of his own accord.

The prisoner had been taken to the holdover late Saturday afternoon, and as he was led through the corridor at police headquarters, he recognized W. P. Martin, a patrolman whom he had met on several occasions.

"I guess they are going to take me to Oklahoma," he said to Martin, who accompanied him to the holdover. "They want me down there for petty larceny, but if they knew what I had done here in Missouri, they wouldn't think of taking me back. Just tell the captain that I've got something to tell him."

Turner, who limps slightly, was led up stairs to Captain Walter Whitsett's private office. His face had a determined look and though he is 28 years old and has associated with criminals since he was 14 years old, he does not look like a crook. He greeted the captain and in a matter of fact way informed him that he was a bank robber.

"I'm tired of beating around the country with the officers always on my trail and I'm willing to come through with all," he said. "You remember the bank at Camden Point? Well, I'm one of the four men that cracked the bank there over a year ago."

The robbery of the bank at that time had been a source of vexation to the police and though two of the men were captured, it was thought that the other members of the party came to Kansas City.

"Yes, Seranton Billie and I planned the robbery over in Zack's saloon at 207 Main street," Turner continued. "We went up to Leavenworth and then took a train to Camden Point the night before the robbery."

"Early the next morning, we went into the bank building and blew the safe, but not until we had used most of our nitro-glycerin. The people of the town were aroused and began to fire into the bank before we could get all the loot. The two men were captured next day in a cornfield, but Billie and I got away."

"We first went to St. Joseph and there we separated. I came to Kansas City because I knew it would be pretty safe here. I had about $600 in bills, but the police didn't get on to me at all."

Turner's blue eyes grew reminiscent

FORMER SEDALIAN IS BOSS

Warren V. Galbreath Manager of Fort Worth Horse Show.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 15.—The exhibition of the National Feeders and Breeders' association has brought together a great crowd of horse fanciers and it is claimed that this is one of the finest exhibitions of horse flesh, especially of good roadsters, ever held in the south, and that Texas takes the lead in these.

"Texas and Oklahoma have as many good roadsters as any other state," is the declaration of Walter V. Galbreath, of Fort Worth, manager of the horse show, who formerly lived in Sedalia.

Mr. Galbreath enjoys a wide reputation as an authority on horse show matters, and is frequently called on to serve as a judge in some of the largest shows of the middle west.

His rather startling statement as to the quality of roadsters owned in the extreme southwestern states or Texas and Oklahoma can be taken as authoritative.

NOVEL CASES, THESE ARE

Strange to Say, They're Not in Kansas, but Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., March 15.—Kentucky claims the honor, or the notoriety, of the strangest graspings of matrimonial matters yet presented.

The court has decided that Miss Frances McClelland must get a husband before she can receive a legacy of $50,000 left by her uncle, the late turfman, Byron McClelland; and R. E. Hammond received a nine years' sentence in the penitentiary for bigamy by marrying according to law a woman he had once married bigamously.
